KOTA KINABALU: A total of 344 undergraduate students of Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) underwent a leadership course for the 2012/2013 session held for two days at Eco Lake Training Centre in Membakut, an hour's drive south of here.

The course involved 200 Year One and Year Two students from the main campus here, 130 from the Labuan campus and 11 from the Sandakan branch.

The course aimed to provide a fresh perspective on roles and responsibilities as leaders at university, national and international levels.

UMS student affairs & alumni deputy vice chancellor Prof Madya Datuk Dr Kasim Md Mansur was on hand to share his expertise and knowledge on the second day of the course.
