

DAILY EXPRESS

Local

Labuan UMS plans big convocation 'do'

By Sohan Das

LABUAN: Universiti Malaysia Sabah Labuan International Campus (UMS-LIC), which is holding its 8th Convocation Carnival from Aug 25 to 31, has prepared a programme that is expected to lure visitors from Sabah, Sarawak and even Brunei.

The carnival will have something for everybody – the young and the old – and Sabah singer-cum-comedian Abu Bakar Allah will be on hand to tickle the ribs.

There will also be a battle of the bands, dances, karaoke, sea sports, fishing, kayak race, beach volleyball, dart, pool, games for children, education expo, performances by the Royal Malaysian Air Force, cooking, baby competition, etc.

UMS-LIC Director, Prof. Dr Syed Azizi Wafa Syed Khalid Wafa, said attractive cash and other prizes are up for grabs in some of the competitions and urged those interested to participate to get in touch with UMS-LIC at 087 460435/403.

Or they can visit the promotion booth that would be set up at the foyer of the Financial Park. The booth would be open from 10am to 3pm from

The Carnival Committee with Dr Syed Azizi (fourth from right). Others are Deputy Director (student affairs), Mohd Azri Ibrahim, Dean of Informatik School, Rozaini Roslan, Deputy Registrar (administration), Zamri Mohd Tuah, and Assistant Treasurer, Badrul Hisham Ismail.

Aug 5 to 6.

"We have formed a special committee to make the carnival a big do, providing a lasting impression, and not only have participants from the island but also attracting others from the neighbouring states," said Dr Syed Azizi.

He also said the carnival would commence with the arrival of UMS Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Datuk Mohd Noh Dalimin, on Aug 25.