

UMS Ang Pau Festival

EP 13-03-2012 B1

THE Universiti Malaysia Sabah Ang Pau Festival 2012 which was held at its Labuan International Campus (UMS-KAL) on March 1 was officiated by the campus director, associate professor Dr Shariff Abdul Kadir Omang.

It was organised by the university's Chinese students.

Apart from the lion dance performance by the students, an exhibition was also held displaying various Chinese cultural items such as costumes, paintings and traditional equipment and Chinese food, including yee sang.

Ricky Chia, the programme coordinator, said the purpose of the exhibition was to showcase and share the Chinese traditions and cultures with the UMS-KAL students and staff.

Also present were the director of UMS Co-curriculum Centre, associate professor Abdul Jamal Abdul Hamid, the dean of Labuan Informatics Science School, Dr Ag Asri Ag Ibrahim and the campus assistant registrar, Zamri Mohd Tuah.

Ricky (front left) explaining about the yee sang to Dr Shariff (third right). Looking on are Ag Asri (right), Jamal (second right) and Zamri (second left).

Dr Shariff appreciating the finer points of one of the Chinese paintings displayed.

