All set for UMS Kaamatan open house on May 31

KOTA KINABALU: Various activities, including cultural presentations by the various ethnic groups in Sabah, have been lined up for the national level Pesta Kaamatan open house, at Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS), on May 31.

Organising chairman Datuk Joseph Pairin Kitingan, who is Deputy Chief Minister, said the programme would be launched by the King, and attended by Prime Minister Datuk Seri Abdullah Ahmad Badawi and Chief Minister Datuk Musa Aman.

There will also be a variety show featuring songbird Siti Nurhaliza, AF artistes Felix and Marsha, Abu Bakar Ellah, Evaristus Gungkit and Vallerie Wong.

Pairin said that transportation to take revellers to UMS would be ready at the Hongkod Koisaaan, in Penampang, after the conclusion of the State level Pesta Kaamatan celebration.
