KOTA KINABALU: The professional 'MIA and the Accountancy Profession In Malaysia' talk organised by University Malaysia Sabah (UMS) Accounting centre, Business, Economy and Accounting Faculty (FPEP), is to prepare future graduates for the accounting field.

The talk is aimed at providing exposure to first-year accounting students on the accounting profession and career in Malaysia, the UMS Accounting Centre stated in a statement.

The talk was presented by Sabah region Malaysia Accounting Institute (MIA) chief, Susan Maiks.

It was participated by 54 first-year students in the accounting programme.

Such professional talks are conducted every semester to UMS accounting students to ensure they are updated on the latest development of the professional body in line with the Accounting Bachelor with Honours recognition by MIA.

Also present at the event was UMS Accounting Centre director, Jainurin Justine @ Abdul Aziz.
