LABUAN: Students of the Waqf Management Course of the Islamic Finance Program, Faculty of International Finance Labuan (FKAL), Universiti Malaysia Sabah Labuan International Campus (UMSKAL) once again succeeded in Infaq Crowdfunding, which is fundraising through the KitaFund platform.

Endowment Management Course Lecturer Dr Haneffa Muchlis Gazali said that this fund collection was used to buy daily equipment for the use of students at Al Ansar Madrasah, Taman Mutiara Kampung Sungai Bedaun here.

He explained that among others the equipment donated were fans, shoes racks, clothes racks and whiteboards for the use of the 29 tahfiz students.

"This project is one of the assignments to complete the evaluation of the Waqf Management Course taken by students this semester," he said.

Haneffa also said that the project is also one of the initiatives under the SULAM Project which is a teaching and learning method (PdP) that combines the results of course learning with community service among students of Institutes of Higher Education (IPT).

The equipment handover ceremony was completed by Infaq Crowdfunding Project Leader, Nur Faliza Adam to Al Ansar Madrasah Chairman Drs Masdaud Mapalili.

Meanwhile, Masdaud thanked the donors, lecturers and students who were involved in making the project a success this time.

The project was implemented by nine Islamic Finance students led by Nur Faliza Adam, together with Nur Afrina Appri, Nurul Izzati Ahmad, Sia Sapini and Sitti Jaisah Ahmad Jais.

Also involved were Muhammad Afiq Arlan, Mohd Firdaus Ibnu Habir, Mohd Haiqal Ramli and Muhammad Salman Latapa.
