

UMS to hold international conference on translation

KOTA KINABALU: Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) will organize the 10th International Conference on Translations, scheduled for Aug 2-4, next year. The organizing committee secretary, Dr Low Kok On, said UMS had been given the honour to host the conference with the cooperation of the Malaysian Translators Association, Dewan Bahasa dan Pustaka (DBP) and the Malaysian National Institute of Translation.

The conference was aimed at promoting exchange of ideas and experiences related to translation as well as to improve the quality of translation leading to academic excellence and international cooperation. "It also stimulates intellectual or professional discourse with the aim of addressing current theories, techniques, issues, perspectives, practice and research in all fields of translation," he said in a statement here yesterday.

The organising committee welcomed participation from professional or amateur translators, scholars, researchers, teachers and interested individuals worldwide.

UMS
MALAYSIA SABAH