Preview of films at UMS

KOTA KINABALU: The public will have the opportunity to watch a free premier preview of Film 1957: Hati Malaya at Dewan Canselor, University Malaysia Sabah beginning at 2pm tomorrow.

Dean of Science Social School cum Director of the Fifth Malaysian Student Film and Video Festival (FFVPM), Dr Asmady Idris, said Chief Minister Datuk Seri Musa Hj Aman had confirmed his attendance.

"The premier preview is part of the FFVPM which is jointly organised by the National Film Development Corporation Malaysia.

"Besides the Chief Minister, film director Suhaimi Baba and the main actors of the film, Maya Karin and Rusdi Ramli, will also watch the preview," he said yesterday.

According to him, the film preview will be followed by a film discussion which will be chaired by famous film director U-Wei Hj Shaari.

"We are welcoming the attendance of the public and villagers around Kota Kinabalu to make it a merrier event," said Asmady.

"There will be no entrance fee and the Dewan Canselor can accommodate 5,000 people at one time, so the public can come in groups," he added.

Another film that will be previewed at the same place at 7pm today is the Jangan Pandang Belakang. Its publisher, David Teo, is also expected to come to the event.
