KOTA KINABALU: Faculty of Business, Economics and Accountancy (FBEA) of Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) held the third International Mobility Seminar, in face-to-face mode after the first two series held was online in October and December last year.

Each series was attended by more than 200 and 480 people respectively.

The seminar was joined by delegates from UiTM Campus 1 Sarawak led by Dr Yussri Sawani, with 20 students visited UMS the same day.

More than 50 participants participated the seminar.

Organizing Chair Dr Noor Fzlinda Fabeil represented Dean Assoc Prof Dr Mohd Rahimie Abd Karim in welcoming the invited speakers: Gary Grimmer

(Chairman of GainingEdge) and Jane Vong Holmes (Senior Manager cum Chair of Asia Pacific).

Gary shared his experience how he started business events practice since early days while Jane shared the opportunity for UMS and UiTM students to explore business events.

Dr Sharifah Milda Amirul, Deputy Dean of Academic and Internationalization, mentioned there will be more conferences to be organized by FBEA this year.

She expressed her gratitude to Datuk Hjh Rosmawati Hj Lasuki, CEO of SICC for the support to the faculty's mobility activities including Trainovation held last year, and visits to SICC by UMS Indonesian, China, and South Korean mobility students.
