

FOREIGN STUDENTS PICK UMS... international students from China starting their scholarly experience at the Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) pose for the camera with parents, the university's academic staff and Deputy Chief Minister, Datuk Tham Nyip Shen (front, sixth left) and SAPP president, Datuk Yong Teck Lee (front, fifth right). The students arrived in Sabah last Sunday and were given a tour of the university yesterday. Impressed with the facilities available they were happy to have been given the opportunity to do tertiary studies in UMS. Tham, meanwhile, encouraged the students to learn Bahasa Melayu and local customs in order to settle in better.