

Social Changes and Development seminar

KOTA KINABALU: The School of Social Sciences of the Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) will be conducting a seminar on Social Change and Development this Friday.

The objective of the seminar among others are to expose students and academicians to the relevant issues on social changes as well as to provide opportunity for them to develop ideas on subjects within the field of social changes.

The Dean of centre for Applied Learning and Multimedia of Universiti Malaysia Sarawak Prof. Dr Peter Songan will be invited to present a paper on Promoting Social Changes Through Information Communication Technologies.

The seminar will be held at the mini auditorium of UMS at 2.30pm and it is open to students of Sociology and Anthropology and academicians.
