

UMS wins IPT debate competition

KOTA KINABALU: Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS), represented by Norhayati Haji Awang Besar, Iskandar Hayat, Dickens Mambu and Mohd Fahmy Abdullah, won this year's debate competition for institutions for higher learning (Pesta Bahas IPT 2002), on Tuesday.

For their achievement, they were accorded the Dewan Bahasa & Pustaka Director-General Shield, with each given RM200 cash, a RM300 book voucher and a certificate.

Universiti Teknologi Mara (UiTM) Kota Kinabalu campus took second place, plus RM150 cash, a RM200 book voucher and certificate for each participant.

At the same time, Iskandar Hayat received another RM200 cash after being adjudged best participant.

This year's competition also involved Kent Teachers College (Tuaran), Gaya Teachers College (Kota Kinabalu), Keningau Teachers College, Sandakan Teachers College, Kolej Pusat Teknologi and Pengurusan Lanjutan Sabah (PTPL), Yayasan Sabah Community College and hosts Kolej Ibu Kota Kinabalu (KIK).

Norhayati receiving the shield from Datuk Haji Abdul Aziz.