

RM1,000 richer for designing winning logo

CASSIANUS Gabriel walked away RM1,000 richer after his design (left) was voted the best among 101 entries from 64 participants for the BBEC logo competition.

State secretary, Datuk K.Y. Mustafa launched the winning logo at the anniversary dinner.

Second place went to Azmi Bongsu of Cosmopolitan College, Kota

Kinabalu, who received RM500 and third place which carried a cash prize of RM300, went to Kuala Penyu-hailed Bonica Akang – a graphics lecturer at Cosmopolitan College, Kota Kinabalu.

Raymonnd Imbayan, Frank Faurillo, Jonoh Majabin of Kota Kinabalu and Chung Cherng Ying and Aron Frank Dickson, both of Sandakan, won consolation prizes.

They received RM100 each.

Moktar Yassin Ajam, Head of Public Awareness Component, said being appropriate as a BBEC logo, the design should symbolise the terrestrial nature conservation in Sabah, contain something indicating nature and Sabah, its forests, wild animals or plants, map of Sabah etc.

Points were given to artistic value, originality, integration of efforts to conserve nature and simplicity which means simple enough to be legible even if it is reduced to small size.

Also present to witness the launching was Datuk Seri Panglima Dr. Abu Hassan Othman, Vice Chancellor of Universiti Malaysia Sabah, who is a committed supporter of the BBEC Programme.
