KOTA KINABALU: The Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) Management and Professional Officers (Non-Academic) Association will hold the Kinabalu II Management and Professional Conference 2012 at Promenade Hotel here on April 26.

The two-day conference, themed "Transformation: Value, Creativity and Innovation", will focus on the role of civil servants in achieving the National Key Result Area (NKRA), apart from discussing on creativity and innovation that spurs transformation.

According to a statement, it will act as a platform for the officers to gain and share relevant knowledge among them, apart from enabling the participants to listen to ideas and giving them opportunities to share knowledge and views on the National Transformation Programme.

Sabah Chief Minister Datuk Seri Musa Aman is scheduled to officiate at the conference.
