

UMS to host OIC conference

TBP 10.11.2006 P. 7

KOTA KINABALU: Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) will host the OIC Human Capital Management Conference 2006 from November 22-24 at the Magellan Sutera.

The three-day conference is co-organised by Malaysia OIC Trade Chamber and Malaysia Institute of Human Resource Management (MIHRM) with the support from the State Government and Sabah Tourism Board.

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Abdullah Hj Ahmad Badawi is expected to launch and present a keynote address at the conference on November 23.

The list of speakers ranges from corporate leaders and senior HR practitioners from various leading organizations and top Government policy makers.

Among the prominent speakers are Datuk Seri Mohd Munir Abd. Majid (chairman of MAS), Datuk K.Y. Mustafa (State Secretary), Datuk Dr Ibrahim Ahmad Bajunid (president of MIHRM), Mr Les Pickett (chief executive of Pacific Rim Consulting Group, Australia), Dr Zainal Abidin bin Tinggal (Special Tasks Executive, Istana Nurul Iman, Brunei Darussalam), Dr Mukhtar Nour Eldin (RCEP-UNESCO) and Tuan Haji Zulkifly Baharom (former director of Malaysia Airlines Academy).

The secretariat received around 200 participants from OIC member countries as well as local participants, academicians, administrators, students and professionals who are interested to boost their knowledge in the human capital management.

For those who are interested to attend as participants (non-authors), registration is still open. Contact Associate Professor Dr Roselina Ahmad Saufi at 088-320105 or 088-320000 extension 1421, E-mail: ras@ums.edu.my / iiddaa05@yahoo.com or visit <http://www.oichcm.org>.
