KOTA KINABALU: Seventy students from Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) participated in the recent two-hour Bra Decorating Contest as a prelude to the Mother's Day Walk-A-Breast on May 13.

The first of its kind in Sabah, it was organised by Kinabalu Pink Ribbon (KPR) and sponsored by Neubodi at UMS Lecture Hall. It was one of the activities of the Breast Cancer Awareness Campaign held by UMS Student Council with the theme Be A Part Of The Cure.

The decorated bras have been submitted to KPR for the May 13 Exhibition at Wisma Wanita, Jalan Tuaran, Kota Kinabalu. Results of the contest will be known on that day. The Top 10 Best Decorated Bra winners will receive Neubodi Cash Vouchers.

At the closing event, KPR Volunteer Julia Hiew, who represented the President, Lucilla Pang, urged the students to be Breast Health Ambassadors.

Meanwhile, Pang said one hundred lucky draw prizes, sponsored by corporate and individual donors, are in store for participants of the Mother's Day Walk which begins and ends at Wisma Wanita. These are in addition to Neubodi Cash Vouchers and lucky draw prizes worth RM1,000, RM750 and RM500.
