

Lee Hock Ann (second right) with the students and the PDK trainees.

UMS club visits disabled persons centre

BP 08.06.2012 B1

HE-19 Club of Labuan International Finance and Business School (LIFBS), Universiti Malaysia Sabah, Labuan International Campus (UMS-KAL) visited the disabled persons centre - Pusat Dalam Komuniti (PDK) - at Jalan Tenaga on April 21.

The group comprised five lecturers and 45 students from the campus.

Deputy dean of LIFBS for research and innovation, Lee Hock Ann, led the visit organised by the programme coordinator of HE-19 Club, Zakiah Hassan.

Zakiah said the purpose of the programme was to enhance the public awareness and to contribute something to the 15 trainees at the centre.

The club also handed over RM300 cash, proceeds from the candy charity sales at the campus, to the centre supervisor, Zubaidah Lamit.

Meanwhile, Zakiah hoped that UMS-KAL's students will organise more activities and visits in the future to show their care for the needy.

"The programme is part of the students' contribution

The UMS-KAL group with the PDK trainers and trainees.

before they finish their studies later.

"I hope the locals too will give their support and contribution to the activities here in PDK," Zakiah said.

Among the activities held during the day by the students for the PDK trainees were aerobic exercise, games and having meals with them.

The students and the trainees who received hampers during the day.

Lee Hock Ann (right) gives the hamper to one of the trainees at the centre. Looking on is one of the He-19 Club members.

Students with the PDK trainees.