

Regiment Group (seated) and Eureka HRD Solution (standing) with their gold and silver awards, souvenirs and certificates at Pullman Hotel, Kuching.

UMS groups win gold and silver awards in convention

BP 17-07-2012 A9

LABUAN: Two groups from Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) won gold and silver awards during the Innovative and Creative Group Convention For Sarawak and Sabah Region 2012 on July 11 and 12.

Regiment Group won the gold after presenting their project entitled, 'The process of receiving LNPT Form takes longer time'.

Eureka HRD Solution won silver after presenting their project entitled, 'The late submission of record of academic staff on study leave'.

The first group was represented by Luqman Ridha Anwar as the group facilitator, Alna Tugon as the group leader, and Noor Hapipah Samat, Stella @ Nurul Martini Gontol, Awang Jamaluddin Jumat, Mohammad Asly Buncho, Emily Singan, Shahzarol Latif, Leopold Modies Falix, Patricia Joseph and Anisah Awang.

The second group comprised of group facilitator Suhaimie Sahabuddin, group leader Syahrul Hazizi, and Joehan Joehari William, together with Abd Nawi Ngah, Adrian Amatus, Mohd. Afiz Mabni @ Matbee, Jennifer Fan, Marlina John and Noorazian Sali.

The evaluation was based on the elements of introduction, selection and project definition, analysis on improvisation, creativity and innovative proposals, monitoring and similarity, accomplishment, value creation and presentation.

Deputy Industry and International Trade Minister

Datuk Jacob Dungau Sagan presented all the awards, certificates and souvenirs to the winners.

Malaysia Productivity Corporation (MPC) was the main organiser of the convention to expose the participants on aspects of productivity and innovation, and to encourage more creativity and innovative activities nationwide.

The winner would participate at national level in the ICC MPC Convention, this year.

UMS, Labuan International Campus (UMS-KAL) sent its group to accompany the main campus teams.

The first deputy chief director of MPC, Ahmad Fadzil Mohamad, and Sarawak Regional MPC director Suhaimy Abdul Talib were also present.