KOTA KINABALU: Universiti Malaysia Sabah's (UMS) School of Arts dance tutor, Tang Sook Kuan, grabbed eight medals and two awards in the World Championship of Performing Arts 2012 in California recently.

All the medals were won through five events, including two gold medals in the duet dance for ethnic category and open dance.

Tang mesmerised the audience with hypnotising dance moves and emerged champion in both categories after beating contestants from 40 countries.

The five silver medals were won through the lyrical duet dance, ethnic solo dance, musical theater solo dance, jazz solo and open solo dance, while the bronze medal was won through her lyrical solo dance, resulting in her bagging a total of eight medals. Prior to this, Tang gave a dance performance during the audition session in Kuala Lumpur to join the Malaysian group.
