

Dr Abdul Kadir Rosline (fourth left) and Dr Mohd Harun (second right) exchanging memento. BP 26.09.2012 BI

Two Sabah universities to work together

UNIVERSITY Malaysia Sabah (UMS) and Universiti Teknologi MARA Sabah are committed to work on collaborative arrangement for the greater good of Sabah and for the nation at large.

Professor Dr Mohd Harun Abdullah, vice chancellor of UMS and Dr Hj Abdul Kadir Rosline, rector of Universiti Teknologi MARA Sabah, will work hard to ensure the people of Sabah, especially the younger generation, are able to obtain quality education.

During the courtesy call at the UMS vice chancellor's office recently, many joint-effort programs were discussed, among others communitising university to the society at large. This is an important aspect of university where it requires students and staff from both universities to work on joint programs to make known the roles of the university and importance of tertiary education.

Both institutions reaffirmed their commitment to ensure greater access to tertiary education so as to serve the overarching purpose of the national education agenda.