LABUAN: Sixteen agencies, including government agencies, are taking part in an education expo in conjunction with Tamu Gadang at Universiti Malaysia Sabah, Labuan International Campus (UMS-KAL).

Among the agencies are the police, Regional Farmers Organisation, Companies Commission, Niosh, Fire and Rescue, Health and Museum Departments, and the National Population and Family Development Board.

Also taking part are UMS-KAL units such as Labuan International Finance and Business School, Labuan Informatics Science School, academic service department, air force volunteers reserve team, language and knowledge centre, and the sports unit.

The spokesperson for the event, Mohd Fadzli Sarudi, said visitors to Tamu Gadang would also have the opportunity to have their medical check-up and take part in several games at the expo.

"This expo is for the benefit of UMS-KAL students and the local community, including secondary students who come to experience campus life," he said.

UMS-KAL director Associate Professor Dr Ismail Ali will officiate at the expo today.
