

Students clean up beach

BP 01-12-2012 B1

TWO hundred and sixty students from tertiary institutions took part in the beach cleaning programme at Tanjung Purun under the 1Malaysia Green 1Malaysia Clean campaign recently.

Among the institutions involved were Universiti Malaysia Sabah, Labuan International Campus (UMS-KAL), Universiti Teknologi Mara (UiTM) Kota Kinabalu and Labuan Matriculation College.

The programme held in conjunction with the Labuan Arts Festival (Lafest) 2012 was officiated by Deputy Tourism Minister Datuk Dr James Dawos Mamit. James said that the programme aimed to show the importance of keeping the beach and its environment clean.

"We want to maintain the cleanliness of our beaches, especially those frequently visited by the tourists," he said.

Also present at the programme were Labuan member of parliament Datuk Yusof Mahal and the chief executive officer of Labuan Corporation, Zainul Abidin Abdullah.
