KOTA KINABALU: Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) Students Representative Council leaders participated in the Asean University Youth Summit at Universiti Utara Malaysia (UUM).

The participation led by its President, Mohd Al-Farid Abraham was in relation to Malaysia being chosen as the country host for Asean.

"The programme was focused on our discussion regarding Asean countries in leading students' mobility in volunteerism aspects," said Farid.

He also said it was a good opportunity for them to participate in the programme as they were able to exchange opinions in improving the volunteerism activities.

"We are very proud that UMS was chosen to represent other public high institutions besides Universiti Sains Islam Malaysia (USIM) and Malaysian Students Volunteer Foundation," he said, adding that 50 universities from Cambodia, Indonesia, Philippines, Thailand and Brunei participated in the programme.

Farid also said that the programme was also attended by representatives from South Korea.

Among those who represented UMS were Asmah Kadir and Monisa Amri who are the UMS Students Representative Council Welfare and Service Exco.

The event was graced by Kedah Menteri Besar, Datuk Mukhriz Mahathir.
