

No'man (front third right) and Amat (front fourth left) pose with the UMS officers who attended the convention.

UMS officers attend leadership management convention

BP 10-01-2012 A13

LABUAN: Seventeen officers of Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) attended the second National Convention of Leadership Management in Melaka recently.

The UMS delegation was led by the deputy chief registrar, No'man Datuk Ahmad and the president of UMS staff union (KEKAUMAS), Amat Jutrah Munsih.

Cuepacs president Datuk Omar Osman, who was present, said in his speech that the convention was significant and in line with the government's aspiration to produce leaders who applied the new leadership approaches.

Omar said the government's aspiration is to mould leadership among the people who could apply new approaches to produce a generation who put performance first by serving the public well.

"The convention this year is aiming to create leadership which covers the implementation method, to shape the transformation practice and the effect in profession to ensure future success of the generation at public universities.

"The five elements emphasised in this convention are effective management, creative and innovative leadership, leadership transformation, employer and employee relationship and to strengthen the management system and deliverance," he added.

The symposium with the theme, 'Creative and Innovative Leadership To Transform The Tertiary Education', was organised by Higher Education Leadership Academy, Higher Education Ministry and GAKUM. It was officiated by Malacca Chief Minister Datuk Seri Mohd Ali Mohd Rustam.