KOTA KINABALU: Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) through its Student Organisation Management Club held a welfare programme at the Yayasan Kebajikan Suria orphanage on Nov 15 in Tuaran.

The programme was officiated by Ahmad Safuan Salim, a representative from Yayasan Kebajikan Suria Complex together with the teachers and students there.

The Youth Support Charity programme was intended to educate the younger generation to be more caring towards the unfortunate. Themed "Together We Care, Together We Share", the programme was not only meant for charity but also to incorporate team spirit among the multi-racial community.

The activities which took place for one day brought much cheer and inspired the children there.
