LABUAN: A calligraphy competition was among the activities held during the Ang Pau Night Opening Ceremony 2016 held at Universiti Malaysia Sabah, Labuan International Campus (UMS-KAL) recently. Present to officiate the opening ceremony was the director of UMS-KAL Assoc. Prof. Dr Geoffrey Harvey Tanakinjal at the lobby of the campus tower.

Dr Geoffrey said that the programme provided an opportunity to the people here to know more about Chinese tradition and culture.

“This programme also serves to strengthen ties between Labuan society and UMS-KAL citizens,” he said.

On March 12 and 20, several activities and an exhibition would be held at Labuan Walk and Convention Hall, Financial Park.

Meanwhile, entrance tickets to the Ang Pau Night on March 26 will be sold during the exhibition day.

“The Ang Pau Night shows that UMS-KAL’s existence as a public university here is able to organize several programmes to showcase the variety of cultures here in this country,” said Dr Geoffrey.

Besides a lion dance performance, Dr Geoffrey with the campus top management also tossed the ‘Lao Sheng’, which is a traditional Chinese dish spaded up joyfully together with every race.

Those interested to buy tickets can contact Wong Yong Sheng (017-333 7128) or Tan Yi Wan 016-509 9107, while those who wish to make a contribution for the Ang Pau Night can contact Guan Lei Fong 016-772 7383 or Koh Liang Zhen 017-499 8172.
