

UMS makes Zahid Adjunct Prof

DE 6.3.2016 2 From Page One

He said the Federal Government had contributed large allocations to strengthen the defence and security aspect in the State to ensure the safety and sovereignty as well as the wellness of the people are always preserved.

The State Government believed the seminar would expose and increase the awareness of participants on the importance of unity in ensuring the security threat, especially in the east coast.

“In this context, UMS can contribute academically by conducting researches relating to border security as well as propose solutions to the government on ways to bolster security in the areas,” he said.

Earlier, Harun announced the appointment of Zahid as an Adjunct Professor in the university's Strategic and Security Research Centre.

He said it is hoped that the appointment will be able to contribute towards political social development in the country, especially in Sabah.

Adjunct Professor is bestowed upon professional individuals or non-academic practitioners who are experts in their own fields. Zahid thanked the university for the recognition. – Tracy Patrick