KOTA KINABALU: Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) athletes clinched one gold and two bronze medals at the Higher Education Institution's Unity Day Inter-University

Sports Meet, hosted by Sunway University in the national capital on Thursday.

The UMS netball team won the gold medal after registering a narrow 6-5 win over Asian Pacific University (APU) in the final.

En route to the final, UMS defeated HELP University in the semis, where in the group stage, they defeated Monash University 7-5, International Medical University 11-5 and blanked UNIKL 17-0.

HELP University and UNIKL were the joint bronze medal winners for the event.

The two bronze medals were contributed by its men's and women's 3 on 3 basketball teams.

The UMS men's team had to settle for bronze after losing 7-6 to University Tenaga Nasional (UNITEN) in the semi-finals, while its women's team went down 9-3 to International Medical University in the last four.

The meet only featured four events, namely football (seven-a-side), netball, men's 3 on 3 basketball and women's 3 on 3 basketball. UMS did not send its football team.

Deputy Minister in the Prime Minister's Department, Datuk Razali Ibrahim presented the prizes to the winners.
