KOTA KINABALU: Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) through its Student Affairs Department recently extended aid to more than 2,000 fire victims of Kampung Landung Ayang, Kudat.

The team led by UMS Deputy Vice-Chancellor of Student Affairs and Alumni, Associate Professor Dr. Ismail Ali presented the donation consisting of basic necessities such as food to the victims who lost their homes and belongings in the fire on May 23.

"We sympathise with the victims. For the record, we at UMS not only focus on academics but are also concerned with the plight of others, especially when our students are involved," said Dr. Ismail, in a statement here.

He said UMS took the initiative to visit the village to help those in need.

Meanwhile, aid for the family of UMS student, Siti

Badariah Abdul Pattah was presented at her aunt's residence in Kampung Tanjung Kapur, Kudat.

The assistance, in the form of food and money, is to help Siti Badariah continue her studies at UMS.

The donation was made possible by the help of the Student Representatives Council (MPP) and the Students Welfare Committee (JAKMAS) of UMS. - By Vesta Vanessa Jsol
