Outward Bound Sabah alumni reunion

BP 10.9.2016 8

PAPAR: The Outward Bound Trust of Sabah (OBS) welcomed 54 alumni, guests and friends at its Alumni Reunion on September 4 at OBS centre near Kinarut.

The event was aimed at promoting a healthy mind, body and lifestyle apart from refreshing memories of their Outward Bound experience.

Some of the activities include sharing of experiences by the participants, group dynamics games and tree planting. Prof Dr Charles Santharaju, Director of ITBC at UMS gave a short talk on the Moringga tree and its benefits.

The event was also attended by Datin Hajah Albinah Ogor (President of SWEPA), Sairah Binti Basrin (Director of PULAKOP), Shenina Samsuri (Deputy Director of Malaysian Tourism Board) and members of OBS including Tan Sri Datuk Seri Panglima Simon Sipaun, Datuk Gabriel William, Datuk Rajah Indran, Chai Moi Len and Dr Navin Rajah. Participants from INTAN kampus Sabah had the largest delegation with 10 members.

Welcoming the participants at the event, the Executive Director of OBS Benjamin Benedict conveyed that the event was specially organised to provide a platform for OBS alumni to continue the spirit of OBS 'To Serve, To Strive and Not to Yield.' It is hoped that more individuals will join this group in the future, who are willing to spend time and volunteer their energy to serve others.
