

Norsharifah wins UMS Public Speaking Competition

DE 15.12.2018 4

KOTA KINABALU: Norsharifah Waty Abdul Salim emerged as the winner of the Public Speaking Competition with her talk on "Mental Health Awareness".

The student of UMS Education and Psychology Faculty was announced as the winner in the competition organised by UMS Public Talk Course held at Lecture Hall 1, UMS Technology and Science Preparatory Centre, recently.

Second and third placing were won by Iskandar Zulkarnain Abdul Ramli and Mohammad Amzar Makklani, respectively from Heritage, Art and Humanitarian Faculty (FKWS).

All three winners brought home hampers and cash presented by the FKWS Dean Prof Dr Ismail Ibrahim.

Among the criterias of the competition were that the contestants must deliver their oratory either in Bahasa Melayu or English based on the given topics.

The competition was open to UMS students and judged by two experienced judges, UMS Publication Director Prof Madya Dr Asmiaty Amat and FKS Senior Lecturer Dr Lokman Abd Samad. Also present was the programme director Anis Hafizah Azmi.

Norsharifah