

UMS X'mas 'do' on Dec 15

DE 5.12.2018 6

KOTA KINABALU: The Sports, Art and Culture Exco of Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) Student Representative Council will organise UMS Christmas celebration on Dec 15 this year.

Its programme director Yuselley Yuyut said the annual celebration is aimed at fostering solidarity and strengthening ties between multi-racial and -religious students.

"In addition, the organising of this Christmas celebration will also continue the spirit of goodwill among the multi-racial UMS communities to create a harmonious campus atmosphere that promotes harmony within the UMS campus," he said.

According to him, various exciting events will be held including lucky draws that promise attractive prizes, special performances from homeland artists such as Norlinda Nanuwil (AF2) and Felix Agus (AF3) as well as other performances such as children's dance, choir, orchestra, musical sketches and so on.

"The celebration will be officiated by Deputy Chief Minister-cum-Sabah Trade and Industry Minister Datuk Seri Wilfred Madius Tangau," he said.

Hence, he invited the public to attend the celebration to enliven it.
