KOTA KINABALU: The Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) Business, Economics and Accounting Faculty successfully held a Convo Charity Golf Tournament at the Nexus Golf Resort Karambunai recently.

The one-day event on November 3 attracted a total of 56 players from various private sector and government agencies including UMS, UMSKAL, UiTM, corporate agencies, private sector companies and individuals.

Organising chairman Associate Professor Dr Raman Noordin said the objective of the event was to raise funds for the university's convocation ceremonies and to forge closer rapport among the participants.

The tournament was held in conjunction with UMS' 20th Convocation, which will be held on November 22 to 24. It featured nett and gross categories which were played using the System 36 Stroke Play format.

Abu Bakar Nasaruddin emerged as the winner in the gross category while Noor Masrandi Abdul won the nett section.

Dr Raman, who is also dean of the Business, Economics and Accounting Faculty, represented UMS vice chancellor Professor Datuk Dr D Kamaruddin D Mudin at the prize presentation ceremony.
