

Letter of intent

FACULTY of Business, Economics and Accountancy of Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) and Student Development of José Rizal University signed a letter of intent to strengthen cooperation, coordination and mobility in the field Business, Economics and Sustainability during the Sustainability Seminar 2018: Towards Sustainable Society at Hotel-lab, Faculty of Business, Economics and Accountancy, Universiti Malaysia Sabah.

The Letter of Intent outlines ways the two institutions to cooperate, including exchange of students or staffs, collaboration in educational projects, trainings, seminars, workshops, conferences and other related activities.

According to UMS Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Academic) Prof Dr Rasid Mail, it is important for both institutions to work together to ensure the highest levels of joint development as many top universities in the world achieved their top status ranking through international collaboration, where José Rizal University is ranked number 5 in the Philippines based on TFE Times.

The collaboration between the two are welcomed as there are many things that UMS can benefit learning from the José Rizal University especially in their experience on small business development and sustainability.
