KOTA KINABALU: Officials from the Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) Career Centre recently went on a three-day study visit at several universities and government agencies in Kuala Lumpur.

Led by its director, Associate Prof Dr Lai Yew Meng, they visited Universiti Teknologi Mara (UiTM) Shah Alam, Taylor's University Kuala Lumpur, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia (UKM) Bangi and Education Ministry.

Lai said the trip was meant to expose the officials on how similar centres are managed at these higher learning institutions, besides to enable exchanges of knowledge, expertise and management practices at the institutions.

Meanwhile, UMS Psychological Officer, Nurul Fatiha Firdaus, said the trip was part of the preparation for the key performance index (KPI) workshop scheduled to be held at end of this month for boosting the roles and functions of the centre.

She also invites all UMS staff and students as well as alumni members to visit the centre's Facebook page to get the latest information relating to career opportunities which are updated from time to time.
