KOTA KINABALU: Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) organised their second International Language and Culture Carnival (ILCC), here recently.

Knowledge and Language Promotion Centre (PIBB) Dean Associate Professor Dr. Jualang Azlan Gansau said the carnival was a collaboration between PPIB and UMS Business, Economics and Accounting Faculty (FPEP) Student Body.

Jualang said the carnival is important as it expose students of UMS as well as the public on the language courses that are offered in PIBB.

"We have language courses such as Mandarin, French, Japanese, Korean, Tamil, Arabic, Korean and Kadazandusun," he said at the ILCC Grand Night.

He also said that the event has also helped highlight various wedding cultures of the language courses offered and that it produces a more positive relationship between lecturers and students as cooperation and unity was born and enhanced throughout the carnival.
