

Deal on agro-business courses

DE 20.3.2018 8

KOTA KINABALU: UMS Investment Holdings Sdn Bhd, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Universiti Malaysia Sabah, signed a Co-operation Agreement with Sabah College of Skills & Technology (SSTC) at a ceremony held at Kota Kinabalu Industrial Park (KKIP), here, recently.

UiNVEST Group Chief Executive Officer, Ramlan Awang Ali said the signed agreement was aimed at collaborating in certificate programme of Plantation Management and Industrial Skills in Agro-Business Management.

"This cooperation agreement is seen as one of the efforts to strengthen education development and skills for the youth in Sabah in line with the State Government's goal towards competent and competitive skills industry skills.

"This collaboration is also a step in promoting the involvement of young people in Sabah to have the expertise and technical knowledge working in agriculture and agro-agriculture," he said in a statement today.

According to Ramlan, through the program it will enhance the knowledge of trainers through learning based on work experience.

"At the same time, trainees will be trained to become professional and trained workers because the actual practice of the work environment in the industry will be exposed to them throughout the course of study.

"Both of these skills programs will involve a one-year study period at SSTC," he added, adding that the study was suitable for Sijil Pelajaran Malaysia (SPM) students and the equivalent or equivalent of the Malaysian High School Certificate (STPM) and equivalent.

Ramlan (front 2nd from left) exchanged agreement with Natalie (front 2nd from right).

Ramlan also provided examples of Japan, Australia and Netherlands that make farms and farms a major source of income.

"Based on the achievements of the countries, it is evident that the field of agriculture is one of the areas that promise a wide range of job opportunities thus denying the perceptions of some who think that farming companies are second-class work.

"Hence, I would like to call on the community, especially the younger generation to take advantage of the programs that will be offered later including those who are not received any offers from any university," he said.

At the event, SSTC was represented by its director Natalie Fung and Training Manager, Jennifer Michael.

Also present were UiNVEST Group General Manager, Yusak Yumboris @ Misesk; Head of UMS Professional Development Centre (UCPD), Mohd Hamdan Ruhimin; and Head of UiNVEST Marketing and Promotion Section, Nerwani Shereen Halik.