KOTA KINABALU: The first Universiti Malaya (UM) 'J.E.J.A.K Kasih Alumni' Programme, was held at Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) yesterday.

The program was officiated by Deputy Minister of Higher Education Datuk Dr Mary Yap Kain Ching who is also a UM alumnus herself.

The programme was organised by the University Malaya Communication Centre and the objective of the programme is to locate and established the relationship between UM Alumni in Sabah.

Mary said that the programme is divided into several zones across the country and Sabah is the first checkpoint for the program this year. Various programs and approaches to reconnect the alumni are being held.

The close collaboration between UM alumni is expected

Mary (centre) leading other UM alumni yesterday to be made possible by the sustainability and excellence of the university.

UM hopes that this program will pioneer the culture of connecting and giving back among UN alumni towards their alma mater. - By Jason Jack Ebit
