

Finding career through MyProspect 2018

DE 15.2.2018 18

KOTA KINABALU: The Malaysia Professional Prospect Convention (MyProspect) 2018 which was organised by the Kelab Rakan Pustaka (KRP) in collaboration with the University Malaysia Sabah Student Representative Council (UMS) and Yayasan Dana Kebajikan Muslim Malaysia (YDKMM) can help local youths develop their potential by helping them to choose their future career.

According to MyProspect Programme Director, Syahrul Fitri Abdul Sukor, the programme aims to help Matriculation students in finding their future career.

"The launch of MyProspect 2018 is also seen as a platform for participants to continue to improve their ability to be an example for youths across the country," he said.

He said this when speaking at the event which took place at UMS Recitation Hall.

Meanwhile, UMS Deputy Chief Librarian, Zawawi Tiyunin said at the opening of the event, he hoped that all participants would benefit from the knowledge they had acquired while engaging in such activities as they were able to open their minds for creative and critical thinking.

"I would also like to take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation and congratulations to those who have worked hard for this career exposure programme.

The programme that can develop self-potential and interest of the foundation students, matriculation, pre-university and diploma," he added.

The programme also featured successful entrepreneurs such as MASwings CEO, Datuk Aminuddin Zakaria; Yun Fook Resources CEO, Datuk Yap Yun Fook; Sabah Mufti, Sahibus Samahah Datuk Bongsu Aziz Jaafar; and Yayasan Dana Kebajikan Muslim Malaysia (YDKMM) Chairman, Mohd. Syafiq Zainal.

The one-day programme also saw 120 participants from around Kota Kinabalu.