

Wasimin (fourth left) handing over a souvenir to Dr Ismail during the courtesy visit. Also seen are Zamri (fifth left), Dr Geoffrey (fourth right) and the rest of UMS-KAL and Labuan Customs Department officials.

Better cooperation between UMS-KAL, Customs Dept

BP 13.4.2013 A4

LABUAN: Cooperation between University Malaysia Sabah, Labuan International Campus (UMS-KAL) and Labuan Customs Department will be further enhanced, said UMS-KAL director Associate Professor Dr Ismail Ali.

In his recent courtesy visit to Labuan Customs Department, Dr Ismail said the cooperation would benefit both sides.

Dr Ismail expressed hope that officers from the department would monitor those students from UMS undergoing training and practical at the department to ensure that they were doing fine while taking care of their university image.

He also conveyed the appreciation of UMS vice-chancellor Professor Datuk Dr Mohd Harun Abdullah and UMS registrar Datuk Abdullah Mohd Said for the commitment and cooperation shown by the Customs Department.

"We extend our invitation to the Labuan Customs Department officers and staff to further their studies at UMS through the off-campus programme.

"We also welcome the department to hold their activities inside UMS-KAL, such as seminars, talks, conferences, sports and others," said Dr Ismail.

Meanwhile, Labuan Customs

Department director Wasimin Daiman said students undergoing their training and practical at the department had been asked to follow all activities so that they could get exposed to the functions of the department.

"After they complete their training and practical, they will be appointed as ambassadors of the Customs Department to help us explain about the department to the people," he said.

Also present were UMS-KAL deputy registrar Zamri Mohamad Tuah, the unit head of UMS-KAL corporate liaison and Dr Geoffrey Harvey Tanakinjal.