KOTA KINABALU: The pride of Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) are ready to compete in the 2013 Malaysian University Games (Masum) to be held in Universiti Malaya this month.

The athletes are Pang Tsun Kuo, Nitas Camillus, Hafifie Febryan, Eldy Sham Irlon, Louis Muslin, Mohd Azlan Abu Bakar, Keneedy Japari, Max Anzie Jetol, Emmy Ahkim, Felnidiah Bte

Lok Lassim, Merry Gabali and Asong Joseph.

All of them have undergone intensive training to achieve their intended targets and goals despite being busy with their respective careers.

Emmy Ahkim who will be taking part in the 400m hurdles has set himself a target of rewriting his own personal best of 64.21sec and at the same time defending the gold he won at the previous games held in Johor last year.

Meanwhile, Nitas Camillus who smashed the meet record in the men's 10,000m walk last year with 58m.48sec is hoping to break the record again.

Two other athletes and first year sports science students Merry Gabali in triple jump who won a bronze at the same meet last year and Pahang Sukma Games bronze medallist Maz Anzie in the Javelin are also hoping for a fruitful outing.
