KOTA KINABALU: 1,655 Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) staff yesterday received excellent service awards during the Excellence Service Awards for 2012 presentation ceremony here.

During his speech at the award presentation ceremony held at the university's Dewan Kuliah Pusat, UMS vice chancellor, Professor Datuk Dr Mohd Harun Abdullah, urged recipients of the award to continue being role models for other staff in the university by continuing on with their excellent work culture.

"Ensure that you continue on with providing your high work standard and adopt good discipline. Share your knowledge with others and help them to be excellent themselves," he called.

He also said that they should not allow their work standard to decline after garnering the award this year as they will be reconsidered for another similar award three years from now.

"If your work standard declines, then it would be a shame," he said.

At the same time, he also made mention of the university's newly launched Human Resource Online system or HR Online. He said, the system was to make it easy for UMS staffs to deal with the human resource department. Through the system, the staff can apply for leave while online, update their status and so on.
