KOTA KINABALU: Ten students from Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) have been chosen for the students mobility between Malaysia and China beginning Sept 22.

They included six students from the Business and Labuan International Financial Centre School, two from the Labuan School of Informatics Science and one each from the School of International Tropical Forestry and School of Food Science.

The six-month programme in Beijing China would see the first three months mostly on learning Mandarin and exposure to the Chinese culture while the final three months would be the related practical training at AEON Beijing. According to the UMS Industry Relation Centre Director, Associate Prof Ho Chong Mun the EcoCampus University and Universiti Utara Malaysia are the two main coordinating institutes in the programme.
