KOJA KINABALU: Two brothers who received their Masters at Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS') 15th Convocation described the moment as a meaningful day in their lives.

Rosli Seraya, 33, and his young brother Borhan, 26, were ecstatic to receive their scrolls in the same convocation on Saturday. Rosli who works as a creative audio officer in UMS graduated in a Master's Degree in Creative Arts while Borhan who works as a lecturer in a private college graduated with a Masters Degree in Human Resource Economic.

Both dedicated their success as a special gift to their parents who are continuously giving support and encouragement for them to excel and elevate their family's living standard.

Rosli said they have seven siblings where six possessed degrees and another younger brother Jumatin, 23, will also be receiving his master's degree in Geography in the convocation on Sunday.

Meanwhile, a UMS Student Council President for 2012 - 2013, Mohd Juhar Harun, 23, who received his degree scroll in history is aspiring to be academician and intend to contribute to UMS in terms of producing quality research paper. He is currently reading for Master Degree in UMS.
