

UMS-KAL holds Indian Cultural Nite

19.4.2014 A1

UNIVERSITI Malaysia Sabah, Labuan International Campus (UMS-KAL) held the Indian Cultural Nite (ICN) 2014 on Tuesday at the campus. The event was officiated by deputy director of UMS-KAL, Dr Geoffrey Harvey Tanakinjal.

In his speech, Dr Tanakinjal said he believed through the ICN, campus citizens would be able to understand more about the culture of the Indian community and their traditions.

"I hope the rest of the students will always understand and appreciate their Indian friends' cultures, some of which are unique and interesting," he noted.

Tanakinjal, who represented UMS-KAL director Associate Professor Dr Ismail Ali, also advised the students that they as ambassadors for UMS-KAL are encouraged to promote their respective cultures and traditions to the local society.

The event saw UMS-KAL Indian students performing their traditional dances and songs to entertain the guests and the rest of the campus citizens.

Held in conjunction with the event was an exhibition of Indian costumes, foods and other Indian traditions.

Present at the event were Labuan MIC chairman Ramasamy A/L Rengasamy and a director of ICN, Saravanakumar Kannan.
