

Students of UMS-KAL and ILP Labuan after attending the talk.

UMS-KAL students attend anti-corruption talk

BP 22-5-2014 10

LABUAN: Seventy-one students of Universiti Malaysia Sabah, Labuan International Campus (UMS-KAL) and Industrial Training Institute (ILP) Labuan took part in an Anti-Corruption and Integrity Talk at UMS-KAL campus, recently.

Programme coordinator Mohd. Norizal Jumat said the programme was held to instill the values of integrity and anti-corruption among the students.

“The students who attended this talk will become the ‘messengers’ to their peers and also to society about the importance of avoiding corruption and abuse of power, while practising integrity in their duty,” he said.

Speakers for the talk include officers of the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Commission, Nur Shafika Julia and Noradimah Kassim.

The one-day programme was officiated by UMS-KAL deputy director Dr Geoffrey Harvey Tanakinjal.