Ramadan is time to enhance ties, UMS staff told

LABUAN: The vice-chancellor of Universiti Malaysia Sabah, Prof. Datuk Dr Mohd Harun Abdullah has urged UMS Muslim staff to grab the opportunity during the Holy Month of Ramadan to do some charity for themselves and others.

In his speech before breaking his fast with the staff at UMS, Labuan International Campus (UMS-KAL) on Friday, he said that the month of Ramadan was the time to enhance further the relationship among the campus management, lecturers, staff and students.

“We need to fully utilize this month that comes only once a year to get closer to God by reading His Book, giving to the needy and doing some other good deeds.

“Let us strengthen our ties and unity to achieve UMS’ vision in achieving excellence,” he said and later handed over some contribution to six UMS-KAL staff.

Also present were Sabah Mufti, Hj Bongsu Jaafar; UMS deputy vice-chancellor, Prof. Dr Sharif Omang Al-Haj; UMS registrar, Datuk Abdullah Mohd Said and UMS-KAL director, Assoc. Prof. Dr Ismail Ali.
