

UMS-KAL students to elect new council Friday

BP 6.11.2014 9

LABUAN: Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) deputy vice-chancellor for student affairs Associate Professor Dr Ismail Ali wants campus students at Labuan International Campus (UMS-KAL) to cast votes this Friday.

An election to select the new student representative council (MPP) will be held at Sri Menanti Room from 8am till 4.30pm.

Dr Ismail who visited the polling centre yesterday, expressed hope that the percentage of students casting votes this year would be higher compared to last year, while expecting the appointed election committees to ensure the election process would go well.

Dr Ismail (left) and Dr Geoffrey (second left) with the election committee at the polling centre.

Accompanying him to the polling centre was the deputy director of UMS-KAL, Associate Professor Dr Geoffrey Harvey Tanakinjal.