KOTA KINABALU: University Malaysia Sabah (UMS) celebrated Hari Raya Aidilfitri and Pesta Kaamatan on Thursday at its Azman Hashim gallery.

UMS vice chancellor Professor Datuk Dr Kasim Mansor said that he felt confident and believed that the event had successfully united the UMS citizens of various religions and culture.

"The Hari Raya Aidilfitri ceremony was celebrated together with Kaamatan festival and it showed the harmony that is formed in UMS and in Sabah."

"Celebrations such as this has become a platform to bring closer and strengthen the ties of brotherhood, and unity among us and the organisation," he said at the event.

Dr Kasim also said that such a ceremony can become a stepping stone to bring closer relationships, to forgive and to start a new leaf for the creation of stronger consensus.

"The difference in religion, culture and ethnic gives us an advantage to be open to giving and receiving feedback, for cooperation, practice prudence and for understanding," he said.

Also present at the event was Deputy Higher Education Minister Datuk Mohammad Yusof Apdal.
