KOTA KINABALU: The Entrepreneur Talk organised by the Universiti Malaysia Sabah (UMS) Career Centre at its post-graduate auditorium recently received encouraging response from the university students and alumni.

The centre's Director, Associate Prof Dr Lai Yew Meng, said 130 students and alumni members took part in the day-long programme which was coordinated by moderator Wong Tze Sheng, the Manager of Sriho Autoparts Sdn Bhd, who is alumni member.

He said the programme was meant to provide information and exposures on entrepreneurship direct to the participants through interaction between participants and the panellists.

"The programme also want to give opportunity for the alumni members to share experiences, success stories and challenges in the entrepreneurship development apart from providing a platform for discussion and closer interaction on entrepreneurship," he said.

A forum was also held during the event, involving invited panellists namely Datuk George Lim Su Chung who is CEO of the G&A Group, Medisinar Clinic and Surgery (Menggatal Branch) Medical Doctor Dr Moy Chun Keat, Martial Art and Fitness Centre Owner Johan Julian Lee Abdullah, and Froggy Planet Sdn Bhd Producer and Film Director, Katak Chua.
